

J. David Garner Steve Bradie

David A. Lewis, Chair of the Board of Green Shield Canada is pleased to announce that a designated successor to President and Chief Executive Officer J. David Garner has been selected. Current Executive Vice-President and Chief Operating Officer Steve Bradie will transition to the position of President and CEO. The timetable for a seamless handover will be jointly determined over the course of the next several months. Until that time, all Green Shield Canada operations will continue as usual under David Garner's leadership.

Steve joined Green Shield in 1987, gaining valuable experience in finance, human resources and claims administration. In 1996 he was promoted to Vice-President, Claims and Administration. In that role, Steve played a critical role in the successful development of the Green Shield Advantage® system. He was appointed to the position of Executive Vice-President and Chief Operating Officer in 2004.

Green Shield is Canada's only national not-for-profit health and dental benefits carrier. Founded in 1957, the organization manages more than 1.3-million plan participants with annual revenues of $1-billion. Green Shield serves a variety of sectors from manufacturing, public service, education, union and other employer and association groups. In addition, the company provides health and dental adjudication for a number of insurance companies. It is the organization's mission to set the standard for flexible, cost-efficient, quality services that exceed clients' expectations.
